

NSC BRIEFING

30 NOVEMBER 1956

SOVIET SECURITY RESTRICTIONS

- I. In the Soviet briefing, Bohlen is quoted as reporting on 26 November that Embassy personnel have not noted increased security measures in Moscow or other areas of the USSR recently visited.
- II. However, US Air and Naval Attaches, on 27 November reported increasing restrictions on and interference with travel in the western USSR, including curtailment of a trip beyond Leningrad, total refusal of travel to Klev, Vitebak and Saratov, denial of trip to Leningrad and Bryansk by British Air Attache, and increasing obstructionist tactics on trips which have been permitted.
